During the convention in Reno, Legionnaires and their families will be housed at the Atlantis Casino Resort Spa, Peppermill Casino Resort, Grand Sierra Resort, Silver Legacy Resort Casino and Circus Circus Reno hotels. Each of these hotels has event space that can be used for meetings, luncheons and other special events, but Reno offers additional venues that are within shuttle or walking distance from the hotels and provide some unique experiences for attendees.

National Bowling Stadium

Located just across the street from the Reno Events Center, the National Bowling Stadium has 65,000 square feet of open space which is adaptable to many configurations. Every event from small dinner parties to large galas can be held on the large concourse. D.J. and live band stages, dance floors and bistro-style seating are all available options. Groups of 50 to 150 can enjoy the royal treatment at the Kingpin Club at the National Bowling Stadium. This party venue features 10 professional bowling lanes, a full bar and multiple HD flat screens.

The Stadium Club offers a more intimate ambience for smaller gatherings. The Stadium Club can be used for meetings, cocktail parties or small dinners for up to 40 people.

Other spaces are available for business meetings or presentations, including a 4,500 square foot room overlooking the Reno Aces Ballpark. The 172-seat theater is perfect for the smaller business video presentation. The four story high screen is accompanied by a six-channel digital sound system. For larger groups, the world's largest video wall is available for video or slide presentations. A luxury spectator seating section can seat 1,100.
