

2022 - 2023 Official Match Program (OMP)

The American Legion presents its 33rd Junior Three-Position Air Rifle Tournament which provides competitors an opportunity to test their marksmanship ability in competition with other junior competitors throughout the nation.

- A. The Individual Tournament has two phases of competition:
 1. First round - State Championships
 2. Second round – Qualification for National Championship

- B. The Team Tournament has two phases of competition:
 1. First round - State championships
 2. Second round – For recognition of top teams in the nation
 - All team members must be entered on the same team per class. To determine rankings, the team score will be comprised of the top four scores fired in each class. Teams will be broken down into multiple teams of four shooters. This will continue until there are less than four shooters remaining per team.

- C. The first round and second round of the Individual Tournament are postal matches, whereas the National Championship is an individual event that is a shoulder-to-shoulder competition.

- D. The first round and the second-round phases of the Team Tournament are postal matches.
 - A Postal Match is a match in which competitor's fire on their home ranges using targets which have been marked for identification. The fired targets are then returned for scoring and ranking for awards.

- The Individual and Team Tournaments will be conducted in accordance with this Official Match Program (OMP) and the current National Standard Three-Position Air Rifle Rule Book.
