The American Legion is the largest veterans service organization.

Services that make differences

- Representing at no cost more than 700,000 veterans and their families seeking VA disability and medical benefits every day.
- Participating in more than 1,000 job fairs and other career events for veterans and their families every year nationwide.
- Fighting for fair conversion of military experience into credit hours for civilian careers in specialized fields such as emergency medicine, commercial driving, civil engineering and hazardous materials handling.
- Providing comfort items for hospitalized military personnel recovering from wounds and illnesses.
- Supporting and helping homeless veterans.
- Spending millions of volunteer hours at VA medical facilities at an estimated annual value of $20 million.
- Supporting veterans suffering from post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury.
- Addressing and lobbying Congress and the White House to provide timely VA health care, efficient benefits processing, effective GI Bill education provisions, a decent quality of life for active-duty military personnel and other issues important to Americans.
- Assisting during natural disasters, from converting local posts into clinics after hurricanes and tornados, to providing food, relief items and other needs to displaced citizens.
- Providing financial assistance to needy military and veteran families with young children at home.
- Awarding college scholarships to children of U.S. servicemembers killed while on active duty since the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001.
- Mentoring youth through American Legion Boys State and Boys Nation, as well as local, state and national American Legion Oratorical Contests.
- Running hundreds of youth programs, including more than 3,000 Scout units, nearly 4,000 American Legion Baseball teams, dozens of Junior Shooting Sports clubs, Junior ROTC and Junior Law Cadet programs.
- Providing citizenship and naturalization education and support for legal immigrants seeking to become Americans.
- Serving as the nation’s foremost authority on U.S. flag respect, procedures and code.
- Educating school children on such topics as flag respect, military service, history and patriotism.
- Providing and distributing U.S. flags for the graves of American military personnel laid to rest at overseas cemeteries.
- Demanding full accounting and repatriation, when possible, of all U.S. military personnel listed as prisoners of war or missing in action.
- Participating at thousands of patriotic observances and events around the world each year at the local, state, national and international levels.
- Handling honor guard services and memorial tributes for fallen military personnel and veterans, from individual funerals to memorial dedications.

A legacy of American Legion accomplishments and impact

- Consolidation of multiple disconnected federal offices, agencies and bureaus into one Veterans Administration in 1930.
- Formulating, drafting and fighting for passage of the GI Bill of Rights in 1944, which educated millions, triggered a half-century of U.S. prosperity, revolutionized higher education and made home ownership possible for average Americans.
- Establishment of a U.S. Flag Code and standard rules of respect and display.
- Collaborated with Columbia University to prove that exposure to the defoliant Agent Orange caused deadly diseases and adverse health conditions among veterans.
- Introduction, growth and continued administration of unapplied youth programs in government (Boys State and Boys Nation); constitutional understanding and public speaking (American Legion Oratorical Contests); healthy competition (American Legion Baseball and Junior Shooting Sports); and more.
- National leadership to help reform the Department of Veterans Affairs to improve health-care accessibility, accelerate benefits processing, update education assistance, and improve employee and management accountability.
- Leadership in veteran career services, including employer-applicant networking, a successful business task force, and representation in Washington to improve the military-to-civilian career transition for veterans.
- Awarding grants to organizations that provide support for children in need.
