

Day 4 LR2021

320 mi / 5 hr 39 min

This 'desolate day to nowhere' is exciting for a variety of reasons. The highlight of the day is an opportunity to tour "A Warrior's Oasis," which is a refuge started by a retired Navy Master Chief to treat veterans with PSTS. We will depart beautiful Ruidoso and find ourselves in more desert until we reach our first gas stop off exit 156/I-25 near Socorro, NM.

It will be important to fill the tanks, because we have a long haul next. The next stretch takes us to a 2 gas station, 8 pump paradise with a population of 200 people in Quemado, NM. As the 'only choice' for gas, it was pure luck that the town is going to host us to bus willing riders out to 'A Warriors Oasis' to see the magic place to treat veterans with PTSD. This will be a long stop, perhaps as much as 3 hours for lunch, gas, and the movement to the oasis. We will conclude the day in Beautiful Show Low, AZ.

Nestled in the mountains, there will be plenty to see and do here.
