

Every Legionnaire a Recruiter Q & A

What is a good card, pamphlet, or piece of literature to carry around and hand out should the opportunity

We highly recommend having a supply of WHY YOU SHOULD BELONG brochures and plenty of membership applications. Most of the time you can be adequately prepared and accomplish quite a bit with these two items

How do we realistically train individuals to be great recruiters when most do not desire to do recruiting in the first place? What resources are available?

By providing training and resources is key. Be sure to share presentations and videos from this National Membership Workshop, check legion.org regularly, and work with your department.
