

TELL YOUR STORY ON LEGIONTOWN

U.S.A.

WHAT: Legiontown is The American Legion's platform for Legion Family members to share stories and photos about themselves or the work their family element is doing to fulfill the Legion's mission on behalf of veterans, youth and communities. More than three dozen categories include USA 250 Challenge to celebrate America's 250th birthday, Why I Chose the Army/Navy/Marines for the service branches' 250th birthdays, Be the One, Buddy Checks, Legion Baseball, Honor & Remembrance, Veterans Helping Veterans, Why I Love My Post, My Time in Uniform and more.

WHO: Anyone in the American Legion Family – Legion, Auxiliary, Sons and Riders – can add content.

WHY: Stories from Legiontown are sometimes pulled for wider coverage on the national website legion.org and in The American Legion Magazine. And in addition to attention from those who visit the site, links to your stories can be shared as widely as you'd like, including on your own social media platforms.

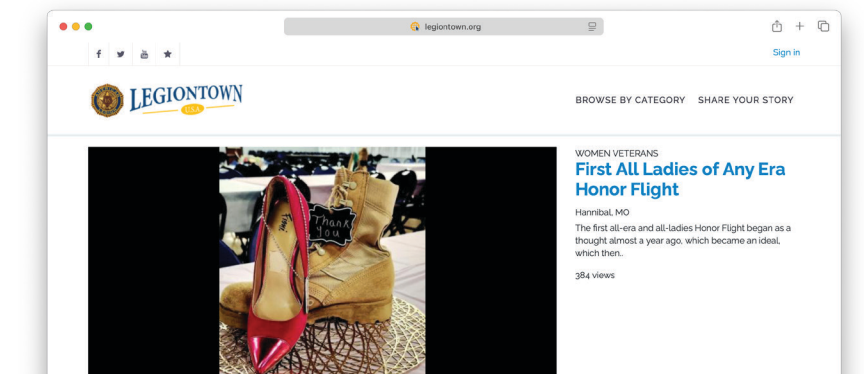

HOW: Scan the QR code to get started, or visit legiontown.org/share. Users can sign in with their MyLegion account or quickly start an account for the site with an email address and password.

Scan to share
or visit
legiontown.org/share

TELL YOUR STORY ON LEGIONTOWN

U.S.A.

WHAT: Legiontown is The American Legion's platform for Legion Family members to share stories and photos about themselves or the work their family element is doing to fulfill the Legion's mission on behalf of veterans, youth and communities. More than three dozen categories include USA 250 Challenge to celebrate America's 250th birthday, Why I Chose the Army/Navy/Marines for the service branches' 250th birthdays, Be the One, Buddy Checks, Legion Baseball, Honor & Remembrance, Veterans Helping Veterans, Why I Love My Post, My Time in Uniform and more.

WHO: Anyone in the American Legion Family – Legion, Auxiliary, Sons and Riders – can add content.

WHY: Stories from Legiontown are sometimes pulled for wider coverage on the national website legion.org and in The American Legion Magazine. And in addition to attention from those who visit the site, links to your stories can be shared as widely as you'd like, including on your own social media platforms.

HOW: Scan the QR code to get started, or visit legiontown.org/share. Users can sign in with their MyLegion account or quickly start an account for the site with an email address and password.

Scan to share
or visit
legiontown.org/share