

FOR GOD AND COUNTRY

Jeremy Revell (VT) - Bio National Vice Commander Northeast Region

Jeremy Revell currently serves as a National Vice Commander of The Sons of The American Legion, proudly representing the Northeast Region. A dedicated member for 24 years, he belongs to Squadron 19 in Bristol, Vermont.

Jeremy is eligible for membership in the SAL through his great-grandfather, Alexander H. Revell II, who served in the U.S. Army during World War I. His legacy of service continues through his grandfather's Alexander H. Revell III, who served in the U.S. Marine Corps, and Lorin Leuthold, who served in the U.S. Navy both of whom served in the Pacific Theater during World War II.

Throughout his years of service in the SAL, Jeremy has held numerous leadership roles at every level. At the squadron level, he served as Finance Officer, Adjutant, and Commander for 11 years. At the detachment level, his roles included County Commander, Area Commander, Senior Vice Commander, Detachment Commander (serving two terms), and Alternate National Executive Committeeman. He also chaired key committees including Children & Youth, Membership, and Advisory, and served as a member of several other detachment-level committees.

Nationally, Jeremy served two years on the Finance Commission and held a leadership role as the Northeast Region Chairman of the Membership and Squadron Activities Committee.

Beyond the organization, Jeremy is committed to supporting veterans in his community. He serves on the Board of Directors for The Dodge House, a transitional residence for homeless veterans in Rutland, Vermont.

Jeremy resides in Lincoln, Vermont, with his wife of 22 years, Erika, and their dog, Betsy.
