As a crossroads of Western History, the Donner - Truckee area is rich in pioneer lore. This was the route of westward-bound emigrants who struggled with their wagons over the rugged Sierra passes. Chinese coolies blasted tunnels through the granite mountains as Irishmen laid down the miles of iron rails for the Transcontinental Railroad in the late 1860's. A visit will be made to Donner Memorial Historic Park and its fine museum. It was here during the winter of 1846-47 that members of the famous westward-bound "Donner Party" played out their tragic rendezvous with destiny.
