

Chris Cook

National Vice Commander

Sons of The American Legion

Chris is a proud lifelong member (31 years and counting) of Squadron 337, Talala, Oklahoma. His membership eligibility comes from his grandfathers: W. Cook serving in the Army Air Cor in WWII; J. Prater serving in the Navy in WWII; and his Great Grandfather S.W. Mackey served in the Infantry in WWI.

Chris has served as National Assistant Sergeant-At-Arms and National Executive Committeeman for the Detachment of Oklahoma. And has completed the National Management of Training courses.

Chris is a registered tribal member of the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.

Chris is also a member of The Grand Lodge of Oklahoma and is Past Worshipful Master of Oologah Masonic Lodge #343.

Chris lives in the growing community of Talala, Oklahoma with his wife, Ashley, of two wonderful years. Chris and Ashley are expecting their own joyful addition to their family this spring. Chris's family are all members of the Legion Family. Chris's father, PNC Rick Cook 1999-2000, has represented the Detachment of Oklahoma at the national level for over 30years and Chris's brother, Jay Cook, has served at the national and detachment level for 25years. Chris's mother, Jacalyn, and sister, Rebecca, are members of the Auxiliary Unit 337. Chris's grandmother, Dortha Cook, has served as Department President of Oklahoma.

Chris is looking to serve this organization and grow the awareness of the Legion Family and all we do for the veterans and their families. By serving those who served, we will protect their legacies.

Serving those who served...Full Steam Ahead