

Jason S. Roberts

Jason S. Roberts is a 21-year member of the Sons of The American Legion, and an honorary life member of the Sons of The American Legion, Detachment of Georgia. Jason earned his eligibility through his father, Ken, who served in the United States Army during the Vietnam War in 1966-1968. He is a member of Squadron 127 in Buford, Georgia.

Roberts' father, Ken, served as a district Jr. Vice Commander. His late mother, Pat, served as a Unit and District President. His sons Brandon and Jake followed in his footsteps and have both served in leadership roles in the Sons of The American Legion. His wife, Jenny, is a member of the American Legion Auxiliary. Roberts is a recipient of the Jerry Burkhead, Sr. Lifetime Achievement Award from the Detachment of Georgia.

Roberts has served the Sons of The American Legion in numerous leadership positions over the years including squadron commander, district nine commander, detachment commander and alternate National Executive Committeeman. Roberts also served on the National Member Training and Development Committee and is a graduate of the National Management Institute. He also served as aide to National Commander Mark Arneson in 2009-2010.

Roberts is excited to continue his service to the Sons of The American Legion as National Vice Commander for the Southern region.
