Measuring the success of an American Legion Post is difficult. While there are many metrics that can be used to determine a successful post, most post use the membership and renewal rates as an indicator. I find that only using membership as a metric tells a small part of the success of a post. For instance, we conduct an oratorical contest every year and a metric that might be used is how many contestants compete in the contest. We could also use the Annual Consolidated Report to find indicators on our success but these seem to be general to help.

You may ask why we need to have metrics to show how well we are doing. To answer this, we would use the chosen metrics to determine our strategy for the upcoming year. An example of a strategy would be how we communicate our Oratorical Contest to the students, their parents and the schools.

We are doing great as a post however we can always do better in our projects and programs. Using metrics will help us determine our success and weaknesses; and the strategies we need construct for our future endeavors.

I want to personal thank our membership for their help on making Flanders Field Post BE02 a very success post.

Four Chaplains

Join us on Sunday, 08 February at the AAFES PX on Chiévrès Airbase to commemorate the 4-Chaplains Sunday.

February 03 marked the historic 73th anniversary of the sinking of the United States Army Transport Dorchester and the legendary acts of selflessness of four Army chaplains who were aboard. The four U.S. Army Chaplains gave up their life jackets and prayed together when their transport ship, the U.S.A.T Dorchester was torpedoed eighty miles south of Greenland on February 3, 1943. The Four Chaplains – sometimes called the Immortal Chaplains – were men from four different religions who sacrificed their lives for men of all faiths. John P. Washington was a Catholic Priest from Kearny, New Jersey, Rabbi Alexander D. Goode was a native of York, Pennsylvania. Clark V. Poling was a minister in the Reformed Church in America at the First Reformed Church in Schenectady, New York. George L. Fox, a decorated World War One veteran, was a Methodist minister in Gilman, Vermont

Department of France Convention—Bastogne

Flanders Field Post BE02 will be hosting the 2016 Department of France’s Annual Convention from 16-19 June. The convention will be held at the Hotel Ol Fosse d'Out, in Houffalize, Belgium which is about 10 miles north of the city of Bastogne. In addition to the meetings, we are planning activities in the Bastogne such as a visit to the Bastogne War Museum. To make this event successful, we need help from the membership, specifically with transportation, greeting the Department membership when they arrive. And other tasks. This is the opportunity to show the Department how well we work as a team. If you can help, contact Commander Schram.

Voter Assistance

Elections are important and as citizens of the United States of America, it is our duty and responsibility to exercise this right by casting our ballots on Election Day and to encourage others to do so as well.

We are working with the USAG Benelux Voting Assistance Office to encourage all Americans to register and vote in all elections. Our trained Voting Assistance Officers (VAOs) ensure that citizens covered by the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA) understand their voting rights, how to register and vote absentee, and provide accurate nonpartisan voting information and assistance.

If you need any assistance with your registration or voting, please contact us at: flanders.fields.post.be02@gmail.com
Hail & Farewells: Jan

Blood Donation Program

Currently there exists a need for blood & plasma donations. If you are healthy and able, please consider giving. The American Legion is the largest collective blood-donor to the Red Cross. The most important part about donating blood is to remember that it saves lives. Waiting for an emergency to donate will not get the blood to the receiver in time. There are several ways we can help. You can be a donor, recruit donors and/or offer to sponsor a blood drive at your post. Don’t assume you’re not eligible because of your age or medications or previous deployments. There is no age maximum for donating and in most cases, as long as you feel healthy, you can donate. Belgium’s donation rules are more specific than those found in the USA allowing for many of us who are deferred in the USA to donate here in Belgium. For more information about blood & plasma donations in your area contact us at flandersfields.post.be02@gmail.com.
The merit badge counselor is a key player in the Boy Scout advancement program. Whatever your area of expertise or interest—whether it is a special craft or hobby or perhaps a life skill as a merit badge counselor, you can play a vital role in stirring a young man's curiosity about that particular topic. By serving as a merit badge counselor, you offer your time, knowledge, and other resources so that Scouts can explore a topic of interest.

As a merit badge counselor, your mission is to join fun with learning. You are both a teacher and mentor to the Scout as he works on a merit badge and learns by doing. By presenting opportunities for growth via engaging activities like designing a Web page or fabricating rope you can pique a young man's interest in the merit badge subject. Just think: Your hands-on involvement could inspire a Scout to develop a lifelong hobby, pursue a particular career, or become an independent, self-supporting adult.

A Scout first expresses an interest in a particular merit badge by letting his unit leader know. To get him started, the leader may give him a signed Application for Merit Badge (blue card) along with the name and telephone number of a district/council approved merit badge counselor. The Scout then contacts the merit badge counselor and makes an appointment. The merit badge counselor sets a date and time to meet with the Scout and his buddy, and may suggest the Scout bring the merit badge pamphlet along with the blue card.

With 132 different merit badges, the need for counselors is great. If you are interested in helping check-out the following webpage:
