DONATE

American Legion Riders have helped raise millions of dollars for the Legacy Scholarship Fund since its inception in 2002. The needs-based college scholarship is awarded to students who lost a parent on active duty since Sept. 11, 2001, or have a parent with a combined VA disability rating of 50 percent or greater.

Applicants are assessed by their financial need, personal commitment to continued education, and their parents' service and sacrifice.

"When I got the scholarship, it did feel like a jump start," said DeAndre Johns, whose mother is an 80-percent disabled veteran. "It made it feel like this is real. I can make my place in the world because of the scholarship."

THE AMERICAN LEGION RIDERS

RIDING TO SUPPORT VETERANS AND CHILDREN

More than 2,200 American Legion Rider chapters, organized by local American Legion posts and departments worldwide, actively support American Legion programs in every state and in several countries overseas.

The Riders represent one of The American Legion's fastest growing and most visible activities, as they perform service activities in their communities and participate in the annual cross-country Legacy Run, their premiere fundraising event.

Riders travel to the Legion's national convention while collecting donations for The American Legion Legacy Fund. The Legacy Run raises awareness of the Legion and its many programs as Riders are welcomed on their stops at veterans homes, wreath-laying ceremonies and other patriotic events in the cities and towns along each year's route.

The Riders are supported by Legion posts and departments, Sons of The American Legion squadrons, American Legion Auxiliary units and private donations. Since the Legacy Fund's inception, millions of dollars have been raised through various activities, culminating in the annual Legacy Run.

Riders chapters are active in their communities as well, participating in countless events and providing escorts for military flights carrying servicemen and women home to their communities and loved ones, as well as serving as honor guards and ceremonial teams to protect the sanctity of veterans' funerals.

The history of the Legacy Scholarship

Since Sept. 11, 2001, the United States has lost about 6,900 troops in Operations Enduring Freedom, Iraqi Freedom, Inherent Freedom and other operations in the War on Terror. There are over 680,000 veterans from this era with service-connected disabilities rated at 50 percent or greater by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

As a result of such valiant service and sacrifice, those servicemembers' families must pick up the emotional, spiritual and financial pieces of their lives. The American Legion Legacy Scholarship was established to assist with the cost of higher education for the children in these families.

One hundred percent of all donations to the Legacy Scholarship fund are used for scholarships. It has been awarded to more than 268 students, including 41 in 2018 totaling $744,436 in scholarship money. The Riders have helped raise more than $1 million annually.

Corporate donations to the Legacy Scholarship Fund are welcome. The American Legion Legacy Trust Fund is a 501 (c)3 public charity as defined by IRS code. Tax-deductible donations may be sent to: The American Legion Legacy Scholarship Fund, The American Legion, P.O. Box 361626, Indianapolis, IN 46236.

The Federal Tax Identification Number (EIN) for The American Legion Legacy Trust Fund is 42-1553035.
